EXPLANATION.

The ability to read the Egyptian hieroglyphics depended upon the discovery of the Rosetta Stone in 1799. Prior to this discovery, no key to the ancient priestly language had been found. The trilingual arrangement of this decree was the one thing needful for this great accomplishment, the ability to read the hieroglyphic language. Singly, the characters meant nothing. By comparison with others, they revealed the ancient civilization of Egypt.

Unable to make the proper interpretation of the various documents referring to the Eby family to be found in Philadelphia, West Chester, Lancaster and Harrisburg, the writer finally resorted to this same method of comparison. Ordering photographs and reproductions of all the maps and surveys, and certified copies of all the other documents referring to the Eby family, assembling these in one room, applying the method of comparison, these documents began to tell a story regarding the activities of the first three generations of the Eby family in America hitherto unsuspected.

From a study of the material here presented, it will be seen that one document explains another in such a way that it is possible to reconstruct at least some of this colonial history. It is certain that for years some of my relatives, and many other investigators from Israel Daniel Rupp down, have tried to get meaning out of these documents, considering them singly.

That there are undiscovered documents relating to the Eby family, still in existence, seems quite probable. The present report must be considered as a preliminary report. The writer is conscious of the fact that he has not got all the meaning out of these various documents. More material and a better understanding of conditions will certainly yield better results.

In the present publication, only the documents throwing light on the subject under discussion are presented. In a subsequent book, all papers and much other material will be included.

To render assurance doubly sure, after having accumulated this material for the printer, Jacob Hill Byrne, Attorney, of Lancaster City, was engaged to mark out upon the map of Lancaster City the approximate boundaries of the First Eby farm in America; the Theodorus Eby tract surveyed in 1718. To H. Frank Eshleman, Attorney, and Jacob Hill Byrne, Attorney, both experts in this line of investigation, must be given credit for having assisted in establishing the historic accuracy of some of the identifications.

COLONIAL DOCUMENTARY HISTORY OF THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732) (HIS RELATIVES AND DESCENDENTS)

This Bulletin does not contain all the colonial documents referring to the EBY FAMILY. It seems impossible to prepare an exhaustive report, for the reason that new material is constantly coming to the surface. However, all the more important documents discovered to date are included, and in this discussion the object to be attained is to indicate which member of the family is referred to, and to point out the kinship, wherever that is possible. Land patents to unclassified members of the family are included in this Bulletin, as this may assist some member of the EBY FAMILY or its branches on these lines to connect up their genealogy.

Naturally, the attention of the writer has been concentrated on his own four colonial Eby ancestors, THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732), PETER EBY (1690-1748), JACOB EBY (1728-1794), and BENJAMIN EBY (1767-1850). Next in order come the other sons of THEODORUS EBY, namely JOHN EBY, GEORGE EBY and CHRISTIAN EBY. The two younger sons of THEODORUS EBY, JACOB EBY and DAVID EBY, have not been worked out sufficiently to make a report, and it will be the work of their numerous descendants to produce investigators equal to the task of digging up their history. The same remark applies to the daughters and son-in-law of THEODORUS EBY. Their descendants should dig out their record.

COLONIAL RECORD OF THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732)

THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732) arrived in LANCASTER COUNTY, PA., in 1712, according to Rupp, 30,000 names, page 437. I have not seen the document from which Rupp obtained his information.

YOREY EBEYS is mentioned in Notes and Queries, Second Series, Volume II, Page 13, in the Conestoga assessment for 1718.

FLORIS EBY is mentioned in Old Rights, Copied Surveys, Book D, Volume 88, Page 137, Department of Internal Affairs, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

FLORIS EBY is the name given on the Plat of Survey to this same Conestoga 300 acres. Plat found among Old Rights, Harrisburg, Pa. Printed on page 20, the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, and in this Bulletin.

TORIS EBY is the name given on the Plat of Survey of this same 300 Conestoga acres. Plat found among Taylor manuscripts in the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Volume 12, No. 2677. Printed on Page 16, the Eby Family Bulletin, No. 2, and in this Bulletin.

Among the names of those assessed in Conestoga Township in 1718, according to Ellis and Evans, 1883, History of Lancaster County, Penna., is that of THEODORUS EBY; on Page 20.

DORIS EBYS is the name used in the Plat of Survey of Lancaster City as it appears in Ellis and Evans, 1883, History of Lancaster County, Pa., Page 360.

THEODORUS EBY is the name used in Ellis and Evans, 1883, History of Lancaster County, Pa., Page 361.

DORIS EBYS is the name given on the Plat of Survey for 307 acres on Mill Creek, dated August 24, 1724, Plat found among Taylor manuscripts, Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Volume XII, Number 2557. Printed in The Eby Family Bulletin, Number 2, Page 24, and in this Bulletin.

THEODORUS EBY, and his sons, PETER, JOHN and GEORGE, according to the assessment list of Conestoga Township, 1724-1725, from Ellis and Evans, 1883, History of Lancaster County, Penna., Page 21, paid taxes at this time and place.

DORSE EBYS MILL is referred to in Petition for a Road dated May 31, 1726, Printed in the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 23 and in this Bulletin.

TORIS EBIS MILL and the mill of TORIS EBIS are the references to THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732) given in the Report of Road Survey laid out Aug. 23rd, 24th, 25th and 26th, in the year 1726. Printed in the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 22, and in this Bulletin.

THEODORUS EBY is the name given in the deed which his children grant to Hans Moser, February 20, 1734, for the 300 Conestoga acres. The Eby Family Bulletin, Number 2, Page 21, and this Bulletin.

THEODORUS EBY is the name used in the patent to HANS MOSER of the 300 Conestoga acres. Patent dated November 16th, 1737, found among Old Rights, Harrisburg, Patent Book "A", Volume 8, Page 314. Printed in the Eby Family Bulletin, No. 2, Page 17, and in this Bulletin.

This is the place to call attention to the name of the grandfather of THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732). His name also was THEODORUS; he also had a nickname; in Swiss Histories his name was spelled DORSZ AEBI, and the father of THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732) was JACOB AEBI. This matter is referred to in Eby Family Bulletin No. 1, Page 10.

A critical study of the Colonial Documents leaves no possible doubt that THEODORUS EBY, YOREY EBey, FLORIS EBY, DORIS EBIS, TORIS EBY, DORSE EBY and finally THEODORUS EBY, all refer to one and the same man, namely THEODORUS EBY, (1663-1732). These are PHONETIC SPELLINGS of the nickname for THEODORUS as written down by British officials, and strangely enough, these PHONETIC SPELLINGS are seen to correspond with the evident PHONETIC SPELLING back in Switzerland by the Swiss officials, of the name of DORSZ AEBI, the grandfather of THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732).

COLONIAL RECORD OF PETER EBY (1690-1748) SON OF THEODORUS EBY

The PETER EBY mentioned by Rupp, 30,000 names, Page 438, as having arrived in Lancaster, Pa., in 1719, was a NEPHEW of THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732). PETER EBY, SON OF THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732), arrived in Lancaster County with his father in 1712.

THEODORUS EBY with his sons, PETER, JOHN and GEORGE, were assessed in CONESTOGA TOWNSHIP, CHESTER COUNTY, Pa., in 1724-1725, according to Ellis & Evans, 1883, History of Lancaster County, Page 21.

PETER EBY son of THEODORUS EBY, was naturalized October 14th, 1729, as PETER ABYE, with his brother, JOHN EBY, as JOHN ABYE. The spelling of their family name—ABYE—was unquestionably phonetic spelling, and this phonetic spelling, standing in a long series of similar but not identical phonetic spellings by various British officials, points straight to the conclusion that THEODORUS EBY and his sons PRONOUNCED their family name according to the markings given for pronouncing the family name of CHRISTOPHER THEODORUS ABY in FUNK & WAGNALL'S STANDARD DICTIONARY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE. The Naturalization Act clearly states that those naturalized had transported themselves and estates into the Province of Pennsylvania, between the years One Thousand and Seven Hundred and One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighteen. PETER EBY, NEPHEW OF THEODORUS EBY, arrived in 1719. Prior to his arrival there was only one PETER EBY in America, and he was the son of THEODORUS EBY, consequently the PETER ABYE and the JOHN ABYE naturalized by this Act of Naturalization, dated October 14th, 1729, were SONS of THEODORUS EBY. This Naturalization Act was printed by Rupp, 1844, History of Lancaster County, Page 121, by Mombert, 1869, Authentic History of Lancaster County, Page 417, and printed with an abbreviated list of names, in the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 19, and in this Bulletin.

PETER EBY, son of THEODORUS EBY, is mentioned at least four times in the RECORD OF THE COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS for Lancaster County, Pa.

On page 39, May 2nd, 1732, PETER ABEE is a bondsman for the appearance of JOHN STUMP.

On page 61, February 6th, 1733, PETER ABBEY by affirmation, becomes a juror.

On Page 118, May 6th, 1735, PETER ABYE, is required to appear and give evidence against JAMES MITCHELL, for beating PETER ABYE.

On Page 121, May 6th, 1735, JAMES MITCHELL is fined 2 shillings and 6 pence for assaulting and beating PETER ABYE, CONSTABLE.

Therefore, it appears that on at least four occasions, from 1732 to 1735, PETER EBY, son of THEODORUS EBY, appears before the British officials of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lancaster, Pa. Four times the British officials spell his name, "by ear" in four different ways, one of the ways being the same as that used when this same PETER EBY was naturalized on Oct. 14, 1729.

Evidently this PETER EBY, (son of THEODORUS EBY,) Redemptioner, Mill-right, Miller, and Constable, became a dealer in real estate. The Colonial Records show that he received at least four Patents for land.

On January 30, 1741, Patent for 200 acres. Patent and Plat of Survey reproduced in this Bulletin.

On June 9, 1741, Patent for 57 acres. Patent and Plat of Survey reproduced in this Bulletin.

On January 10, 1741, Patent for 90 acres. Patent and Plat of Survey reproduced in this Bulletin, and in the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Pages 28 and 29.

On January 15th, 1744, Patent for the Mill Creek 307 acres surveyed for his father, THEODORUS EBY, on Oct. 24th, 1724, Patent and plat of Survey reproduced in this Bulletin, and in the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Pages 24 and 25.

Corroborative and confirmatory of the historic fact that PETER EBY (1690-1748) was a dealer in real estate in Lancaster County, Pa., is the Deed granted by his son, JACOB EBY, (1728-1794) to MICHAEL RHYNE, dated July 4th, 1755, and found recorded in Lancaster County Court House, Deed Book "D", Page 406.

This lengthy document is printed in the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 33, and in this Bulletin. It is of peculiar interest to the great army of descendants of PETER EBY, son of THEODORUS EBY. No single document that the writer has ever discovered in Europe or America, has given him quite the thrill which he received upon finding this Deed which is recorded in Lancaster County Court House. This PETER EBY, my ancestor, was sold as a bond slave upon his arrival in Philadelphia, to pay his passage cross the Atlantic, according to family tradition. This deed plainly states that upon his death his land alone in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, consisted of at least 250 acres, appraised at 650 Pounds. (British money), 100 acres appraised at 240 pounds (British money), 200 acres appraised at 400 pounds (British money), a total of 550 acres—of the richest land in the richest farming county of Pennsylvania, appraised at 1,290 pounds (British money). A long chapter might be written upon and about this document. What great energy!! What diligence! What perseverance! What solid common sense does this document disclose! In the wilderness of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, 200 years ago, my ancestor, a strict Menonite, or Swiss Quaker, accumulated all this property and more. Progenitor of an army of strong men, ax men, millwrights, woodsmen, millers, pioneers! The progeny of PETER EBY (1690-1748) have done their full share in converting the vast wilderness west of Philadelphia into a garden, even to the orange groves of California. His descendants today are following the tide to the great cities of our continent, and are coming into competition with strong men from many lands. The heritage of brains and energy which came to them through PETER EBY (1690-1748) enables them to hold their own in the fierce struggle for fame and fortune.

The heirs of THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732) are shown in the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Pages 21 and 27, and in this Bulletin. The heirs of his son, PETER EBY (1690-1748) are disclosed in a Deed granted by them on January 1st, 1768, to BENJAMIN OWEN, which document is printed in this Bulletin, and the list of the heirs of PETER EBY also occurs in the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 31, and in this Bulletin.

The Will of PETER EBY, dated August 17, 1748, is preserved in the Court House at Lancaster, Pa. It is printed in the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 32, and in this Bulletin.

PETER EBY (1690-1748) died while his son, Jacob Eby (1728-1894) was a minor. Jacob Eby was born July 18, 1728. The will of Peter Eby is dated August 17, 1748. Therefore Peter Eby died between August 17, 1748, and July 18, 1749.

COLONIAL RECORD OF JACOB EBY (1728-1794) GRANDSON OF THEODORUS EBY

The first reference to this JACOB EBY (1728-1794) that I have been able to find, is in Pennsylvania Archives. Third Series, Volume 24, Page 401. In Lancaster, Pa., May 2, 1751—fifty acres to JACOB EBY.

On April 9, 1755, JACOB ABEY obtains an order from the ORPHANS COURT of LANCASTER COUNTY, the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 32, and in this Bulletin. JACOB ABEY is phonetic spelling.

On July 4, 1755, JACOB EBY and his wife, HANNAH (LATERIN), Deed to MICHAEL RHYNE 150 acres, a portion of 307 acres surveyed for his grandfather, THEODORUS EBY, on August 24, 1724. This Document is printed in the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 33, and in this Bulletin.

In this Bulletin is printed a COLONIAL TAX LIST OF THE SWISS EBY FAMILY, compiled from the Pennsylvania Archives. The following facts illuminate this Tax List

On August 24, 1724, THEODORUS EBY had 307 acres surveyed for him. The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 24.

On January 15, 1744, PETER EBY, son of THEODORUS EBY, receives a Patent for this same 307 acres. The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 24.

On July 4, 1755, JACOB EBY, grandson of THEODORUS EBY, and his wife, HANNAH (LATERIN), Deed 150 acres of this 307 acre tract to MICHAEL RHYNE. The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 33. This leaves a remainder of 157 acres of the original THEODORUS EBY MILL CREEK TRACT OF 307 ACRES in possession of his grandson, JACOB EBY. According to Pennsylvania Archives, Third Series, Volume 17, in Leacock Township, Lancaster County, Pa., for five years, 1771-1772-1773-1779 and 1782, JACOB ABEY, JACOB EBOY and JACOB EBY, are assessed for 150 acres. My proposition is that JACOB ABEY, JACOB EBOY and JACOB EBY of this Colonial Tax List, were one and the same man, JACOB EBY (1728-1794), grandson of THEODORUS EBY.

By closely studying the spelling, the township, the year, the number of acres, other members of the EBY FAMILY may be traced by this same method of comparison. This hint is for the benefit of my relatives,

In this Bulletin is printed a list of THE SWISS EBY FAMILY IN THE FIRST UNITED STATES CENSUS OF 1790, JACOB EABY, OF LEACOCK TOWNSHIP, LANCASTER COUNTY, PA., IN HEADS OF FAMILIES is without doubt JACOB EBY (1728-1794). The dates and all the circumstances point to this conclusion, EABY being the PHONETIC SPELLING of the name EBY as pronounced by JACOB EBY himself, in the presence of Census Enumerator. Compare this with JACOB EABY of the Colonial Tax List for 1771 and 1772.

Four years after this Census of 1790, JACOB EBY died. He was buried in the EBY CEMETERY at Monterey, Upper Leacock Township, Lancaster County, Pa., and his gravestone, evidently the original, bears the name of JACOB EBY.

Elsewhere in this Bulletin is printed a DIRECTORY OF THIS EBY CEMETERY. The gravestone of this JACOB EBY (1728-1794) is the oldest gravestone with an unmistakable inscription, in this Eby Cemetery. Several gravestones are evidently older, but the inscriptions cannot be identified with any degree of certainty.

The Genealogical Chart of JACOB EBY (1728-1794), appearing in the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 25, and in this Bulletin, is based upon a FAMILY BIBLE RECORD, evidently the original entry, which I myself copied from the original record itself. Perhaps some member of the family will be able to fill in the lacking information in this chart.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF PETER EBY, SON OF THEODORUS EBY, AUGUST 17th, 1748. THIS PETER EBY WAS BORN IN CANTON ZURICH,

COLONIAL RECORD OF BENJAMIN EBY (1767-1850) GREAT GRANDSON OF THEODORUS EBY

The name of my great-grandfather, BENJAMIN EBY (1767-1850) does not occur in any of the Tax Lists as given in Pennsylvania Archives, Third Series, Volume 17, because he was too young to pay taxes on those dates.

In the list of the WARRANTIES OF LAND, Pennsylvania Archives, Third Series, Volume 25, his name occurs twice. Once as BENJAMIN EABY, PHONETIC SPELLING of his Family name, and as BENJAMIN EBY, the CORRECT SPELLING of his Family name, both times from FRANKLIN COUNTY.

On March 28, 1809, BENJAMIN EABY receives a Warrant for 59 acres and 117 perches, on Page 16, Pennsylvania Archives, Third Series, Volume 24. Referring to the Deed granted by BENJAMIN EBY and SARAH (BAER), his wife, the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 44, this same 59 acres and 117 perches is Deeded to JACOB EBY, on December 1, 1830. This original Deed is now in my possession. Referring to the Plat of Survey of the BENJAMIN EBY PLANTATION, the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 45, the shape and location of this same 59 acres and 117 perches is indicated.

Referring to the Eby Family Bulletin, No. 3, this Patent, the original of which is in my possession, for this same 59 acres and 117 perches, to BENJAMIN EABY, or BENJAMIN EBY, is reproduced by photographic process. Observe that the PHONETIC SPELLING, BENJAMIN EABY, occurs FOUR times in this original Patent, and BENJAMIN EBY, once. Observe also that this tract of land is named in the Patent "EABYSBURG," the phonetic spelling again.

The other reference to my great-grandfather, BENJAMIN EBY (1767-1850), in Pennsylvania Archives, Third Series, Volume 25, Franklin County, Pennsylvania, Page 17, May 10, 1819, 46 acres. Referring to the Plat of Survey, the Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 45, the shape and location of this 46 acres may be traced from the legal description.

In the FIRST UNITED STATES CENSUS OF 1790, HEADS OF FAMILIES, my great-grandfather is recorded as BENJAMIN EABY, LEACOCK TOWNSHIP, LANCASTER COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA. Here we have the phonetic spelling as caught and preserved by the census official, demonstrating that my great-grandfather himself pronounced his family name as marked for CHRISTOPHER THEODORUS ABY in Funk and Wagnall's Standard Dictionary.

On April 1, 1802, JOHN ELDER grants 45 acres and 49 perches to BENJAMIN EBY. The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 47, and in this Bulletin. This Document is recorded in the Court House at CHAMBERSBURG, FRANKLIN COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, Deed Book, Volume 7, Page 195. In this Document the PHONETIC SPELLING, BENJAMIN EABY, occurs FOUR times, and BENJAMIN EBY, twice. In Deed Book, Volume 7, in the Court House at Chambersburg, Franklin County, Pennsylvania, the name of my great-grandfather, BENJAMIN EBY, occurs twenty-five times in connection with various real estate transactions; twenty times his name is spelled BENJAMIN EABY, and five times it is spelled BENJAMIN EBY, and in Volume 5, Page 227, his name is spelled BENJAMIN EAVY.

While we are on the subject of the SPELLING of the family name, EBY, permit me to call attention to this fact. In the Huntingdon Court House, Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania, Will Book 3, Page 239, under date January 19, 1828, the administrators make a report on the estate of JOHN EBY, DECEASED. His children SIGN THEIR NAMES as ELIZABETH EBey, AGNES AVY, MARY EVY, and WILLIAM EVY. As a philological and phonetic documentary exhibit, this record surpasses anything I have seen in Europe or America. As to the SPELLING and PRONUNCIATION in America of the Swiss Eby Family name, this document binds up and explains a number of otherwise unintelligible spellings of the family name Eby.

In this same Court House at Chambersburg, Mortgage Book, Volume B, Page 452, on the margin, is the signature of my great-grandfather, BENJAMIN EBY, releasing a mortgage, May 13, 1837. This signature is BENJAMIN EBY, and this signature is identical with my great-grandfather's signature on Deeds and Documents in my possession. He invariably wrote his name in German characters, BENJAMIN EBY, but he PRONOUNCED his name to agree with the markings given for pronouncing CHRISTOPHER THEODORUS ABY in Funk & Wagnall's Standard Dictionary, according to octogenarians now residing in Path Valley who remember him and his sons well.

In the Records in the Court House at HUNTINGDON, HUNTINGDON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, the name of my great-grandfather occurs frequently, as he was a dealer in real estate in Huntingdon County, as well as in Franklin County, and he also financed his pioneer sons in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. In the history of Huntingdon County, 1883, by J. S. Africa, on Page 285, he is referred to as BENJAMIN EBY, a native of LANCASTER COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA. His son, BENJAMIN EBY, referred to in this article, was my grandfather, BENJAMIN ABY (1801-1867), of Peoria County, Illinois.

Of the other sons of my great-grandfather, BENJAMIN EBY (1767-1850), we may mention that JOEL EBY (1793-1861) and JACOB EBY (1798-1856) lie buried in Chelsea Brethren Cemetery, near Lena, Joe Davies County, Illinois. JOHN EBY, (1803-1866) is buried in the Eby Cemetery, Sherman Valley, Perry County, Pa. HENRY EBY is reported to be buried near Dallas Center, Dallas County, Iowa. GEORGE EBY (1795-1848) lies buried in the cemetery back of the stone church of the Brethren, Germany Valley, Shirley Township, Huntingdon County, Pa. SUSANNA (EBY) CROUSE (1791-1848) and her husband, ADAM CROUSE, lie buried in the Old Dutch Cemetery, Dry Run, Path Valley, Fannette Township, Franklin County, Pa. The writer has no information regarding SARAH (EBY) GARVER and her husband, JOHN GARVER. My grandfather, BENJAMIN ABY (1801-1867) lies buried in the Old Cemetery, Rochester, Millbrook Township, Peoria County, Illinois.

COLONIAL RECORD OF JOHN EBY, SON OF THEODORUS EBY

Ellis and Evans, 1883, History of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, Page 21, gives a list of those who paid taxes in Conestoga Township in 1724-1725. This list includes THEODORUS EBY and his three sons, PETER, JOHN and GEORGE.

Pennsylvania Archives, Second Series, Volume 19, Page 724, in 1726, JOHN EBY applies for a permit to erect a mill.

On October 14, 1729, JOHN EBY and his brother, PETER EBY, sons of THEODORUS EBY, were naturalized under the names of JOHN ABYE and PETER ABYE. Rupp, 1884, History of Lancaster County, Page 126. Mombert, 1869, Authentic History of Lancaster County, Page 417. The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 19. They are mentioned by H. FRANK ESHLEMAN, Historic Background, Swiss and German Pioneers, as JOYN AYBE and PETER AYBE, Pages 210 and 233.

Rupp, Page 291, states "JOHN EBY'S MILL, ELIAS MEYER'S MILL, and GEORGE EBY'S MILL, all erected before 1739."

In a Deed to HANS MUSSER, dated February 20, 1734, granted by the heirs of THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732), JOHN EBY signs his name. The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 21.

JOHN EBY is mentioned as having died, INTESTATE AND UNMARRIED, in a Patent issued to his brother, PETER EBY, recorded in Old Rights, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Patent Book A, Volume 11, Page 457 dated January 15, 1744. This Patent is printed in The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 25, and in this Bulletin, and also The Plat of Survey for 307 acres surveyed for his father, THEODORUS EBY, August 24, 1724, printed elsewhere, answers the legal description.

COLONIAL RECORD OF GEORGE EBI, SON OF THEODORUS EBY

In the Record of the COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, for May 1, 1733, Page 66, GEORGE ABI is ordered to appear and give evidence against ROBERT BLACK.

Among the TAYLOR MANUSCRIPTS in The Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Volume 12, No. 2539, is a Plat of Survey to GEORGE EBY. This Plat is reproduced in The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 36, and in this Bulletin. The Junction of HAMMER CREEK with COCALICO CREEK is the location at MILLWAY, WARWICK TOWNSHIP, LANCASTER COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, as may be seen from the Plat of Survey.

From The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 12, "Northwest from this homestead of THEODORUS EBY, at the present VILLAGE OF MILLWAY, in WARWICK TOWNSHIP, above the Junction of Cocalico and Hammer Creek, within a few feet of the present stone Mill, was the Millsite of GEORGE EBY." This GEORGE EBY is referred to in Ellis and Evans, 1883, History of Lancaster County, Page 1072, as being the first member of the Eby family to settle in the present WARWICK TOWNSHIP, and on Page 1074, as having built the first Mill in WARWICK TOWNSHIP. GEORGE EBY himself spelled his own name GEOGE EBI, and his brother spelled his own name CHRISTIAN EBI. See The Eby Family Bulletin No. 1, Page 11.

GEORGE EBY is mentioned in a Patent to his son, CHRISTIAN EBY, of this 150 acres, Patent dated October 16, 1760, found among Old Rights, Harrisburg, Patent Book AA, Volume 1, Page 104. This Patent is reproduced in The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 37, and in this Bulletin, with the Plat of Survey on the page opposite to the Patent. From this document we reconstruct some of the family history of GEORGE EBY, son of THEODORUS EBY. This GEORGE EBY is not mentioned in History of the Eby Family, 1889, by EZRA EBY.

Out in Illinois we again pick up the family history of GEORGE EBY, son of THEODORUS EBY, under the name of GEORGE EBEEY, in History of Sangamon County, Illinois, 1876, by Power. But GEORGE EBEEY was a son of GEORGE EBY, and grandson of THEODORUS EBY, as will more fully and at large appear in a subsequent publication upon the EBEEY FAMILY, and the EBEEY FAMILY of Los Angeles, California, are the progeny of GEORGE EBY, son of THEODORUS EBY, who is referred to in The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Pages 36 and 37.

Among the Penn-Physick Papers in the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Volume 5, No. 76, dated October 16, 1760, this same GEORGE EBY and his son, CHRISTIAN EBY, and this same 150 acres, are referred to again. This Penn-Physick Manuscript is reproduced in The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 39, and in this Bulletin. Los Angeles members of the EBEEY FAMILY by this statement will know that their family history has been connected up with that of the family of THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732), through the Revolutionary hero, GEORGE EBY, grandson of THEODORUS EBY, who left Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, with MAD ANTHONY WAYNE and never returned.

THEODORUS EBY

This member of the family himself spelled his own name EBI, and left us that record carved deep in the face of a rock, the rock being embedded in the front wall of his house, as was and is the custom in Switzerland. This rock may be seen today in the Stone Colonial Mansion on Hammer Creek, and constitutes one of the most important philological documents. This rock is referred to, with incorrect spelling, in History of The Eby Family, 1889, by EZRA EBY, Page 6. The Eby Family Bulletin No. 1, Page 11, and The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 10, give the correct spelling.

The Plat of Survey to the homestead of CHRISTIAN EBI is reproduced in The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 40, and the Patent granted to CHRISTIAN EBY on page 41. CHRISTIAN EBI was CHRISTIAN EBY.

There are not enough documents at hand to enable the writer to identify and distinguish which CHRISTIAN EBY is referred to in the various Colonial sources of information. It is the work of his numerous and very competent descendants to ferret out these documents, and to assemble and interpret them into something resembling a family history. In Warrantees of Land to Members of the Swiss Eby Family, The Eby Family Bulletin No. 2, Page 15, six members of the family named CHRISTIAN are mentioned. In this Bulletin, Colonial Catalog of The Swiss Eby Family, CHRISTIAN EVY, CHRISTIAN EVI, CHRISTIAN EVEY, CHRISTIAN EBY, CHRISTIAN EBEEY, CHRISTIAN EAVY and CHRISTIAN EABY are listed. To their progeny belongs the task of determining who is who.

In the Colonial Tax List of the Swiss Eby Family in this Bulletin, we find CHRISTIAN EABY, CHRISTIAN EBY and CHRISTIAN EBEEY. Who is who in this list?

In this Bulletin is a list of The Swiss Eby Family in the first United States Census of 1790. Here we find the names of CHRISTIAN EABY, CHRISTIAN EAVEY and CHRISTIAN EBY. Two of these I have identified, and so indicated by years of birth and death, but I may be mistaken.

By referring to the Directory of the Eby Cemetery in this Bulletin, it will be seen that only one man named CHRISTIAN is buried there, CHRISTIAN EBY (1780-1827).

By applying the method of comparison, the writer has been able to determine the Colonial History of his four EBY ancestors, THEODORUS EBY (1663-1732), PETER EBY (1690-1748), JACOB EBY (1728-1794), BENJAMIN EBY (1767-1850). No matter what spelling is given in the document, the context shows which man is referred to. The descendants of CHRISTIAN EBI (1698-1756) are fully competent to straighten out the tangle, and the present writer will not deprive any of his relatives in Canada, the Pacific Coast, Japan, or India, of the opportunity to dig up the documents necessary to determine who is who among the MEMBERS OF THE EBY FAMILY NAMED CHRISTIAN.

NATURALIZATION OF PETER EBY AND JOHN EBY, TWO SONS OF THEODORUS EBY, AS BRITISH SUBJECTS. OCTOBER 14th, 1729.

From Mombert's Authentic History of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, 1860, page 317, and Rupp, 1844, History of Lancaster County, Penna., page 121. Clayton Martin, Pharmacist, of Lancaster City, has a copy of this document.

"We shall present a public document possessing more than ordinary interest to the numerous descendants of those whose names are recorded in it. We are indebted to Abraham Meylin, of West Lampeter Township (Lancaster County, Pennsylvania), for a copy of it. This document has been upward of 114 years in the possession of the Meylin family. It is an act passed anno REGNI GEORGE II Regis Magnae Britanniae, Franciae, et Hiberniae, tertio, October 14, 1729.

WHEREAS, By encouragement given by the Honorable William Penn, Esq., late Proprietary and Governor of the province of Pennsylvania, and by permission of his Majesty, King George the First, of blessed memory, and his predecessors, Kings and Queens of England, &c., divers Protestants, who were subjects to the Emperor of Germany, a Prince in amity with the Crown of Great Britain, transported themselves, and estates into the province of Pennsylvania, between the years one thousand seven hundred, and one thousand seven hundred and eighteen; and since they came hither have contributed very much to the enlargement of the British Empire, and to the raising and improving sundry commodities fit for the markets of Europe, and have always behaved themselves religiously and peaceably, and have paid a due regard and obedience to the laws and government of this province; And whereas, Many of said persons, to wit, Martin Meylin, Hans Graaf, and others, all of Lancaster county, in the said province, in demonstration of their affection and zeal for his present Majesty's person and Government, qualified themselves by taking the qualification, and subscribing the declaration directed to be taken and subscribed by the several acts of parliament, made for the security of his Majesty's person and Government, and for preventing the dangers which may happen by Popish Recusants, &c., and thereupon, have humbly signified to the Governor and Representatives of the freemen of this province, in General Assembly, that they have purchased and do hold lands of the proprietary, and others, his Majesty's subjects within this province, and have likewise represented their great desire of being made partakers of those privileges which the natural born subjects of Great Britain do enjoy within this province; and it being just and reasonable, that those persons who have bona fide purchased lands, and who have given such testimony of their affection and obedience to the Crown of Great Britain, should as well be secured in the enjoyment of their estates, as encouraged in their laudable affection and zeal for the English constitution;

Be it enacted by the Hon. Patrick Gordon, Esq., Lieut. Governor of the province of Pennsylvania, &c., by and with the advice and consent of the freemen of the said province, in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That Martin Meylin, ———— Peter Abye, John Abye, all of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, be, and shall be to all intents and purposes deemed, taken, and esteemed, His Majesty's natural born subjects of this province of Pennsylvania as if they and each of them has been born within the said province, and shall and may, and every one of them shall and may, within this province, take, receive, enjoy, and be entitled to all rights, privileges and advantages of natural born subjects, as fully, to all intents, and constructions and purposes whatsoever, as any of his Majesty's natural born subjects of this province can, do or ought to enjoy by virtur of their being His Majesty's natural born subjects of His Majesty's said province of Pennsylvania.

Philip Eby arrived in New Orleans, U. S. A., in 1852. Nickolaus Eby arrived in New Orleans, U. S. A., in 1853, and George Eby died on the Atlantic Ocean on his way to America in 1855.

COLONIAL TAX LIST OF THE SWISS EBY FAMILY.

Subject to additions and corrections, this list, compiled from Pennsylvania Archives, Third Series, Volume XVII, shows geographical distribution and property of members of the Swiss Eby family. Ellis and Evans, 1883, History of Lancaster County, Penna., page 20, mentions Theodorus Eby, taxed in 1718 in Conestoga Township, and Theodorus Eby and his three sons, Peter, John and George, on page 21, taxed in 1724 and 1725 in Conestoga Township. First column gives number of acres, second column horses, third column cattle, fourth column tax in English money.

THE SWISS EBY FAMILY IN THE FIRST UNITED STATES CENSUS OF 1790.

Subject to additions and corrections, this list contains members of the Swiss Eby family included in the United States Census of 1790, heads of families. At this date, 1790, the State of Pennsylvania contained all the heads of the Swiss Eby family in America. Probably the Joseph Aby, Medway Township, Suffolk County, Massachusetts, belonged to the Abbe, Abbey, Abby group of families.

Dates of birth and death, here included, taken mostly from gravestones, are probably correct identifications, but subject to correction.

ABBY, Peter, Franklin Co., Pa.

EABY, Christian.

EABY, Isaac, Earl Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

EAVE, Adam.

EAVEY, Christian, Northumberland Co., Pa.

EBBE, Mannel, Delaware Co., Pa.

EBI, Christian, York Co., Pa.

EBIE, Jacob, Manor Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

It seems that the carelessness of the census enumerators is responsible for this variation in spelling, for it is quite certain that Jacob Eaby above is the Jacob Eby (1728-1794), buried in the Eby cemetery at Monterey, upper Leacock Township, and that this Benjamin Eaby was his son, the Benjamin Eby (1767-1850), of Path Valley, Franklin Co., Penna.

EBY, Abraham (1736-1815), Leacock Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

EBY, Andrew (1747-1830), Warwick Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

EBY, Christian, Leacock Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

EBY, Christian (1734-1807), Warwick Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

EBY, Christian (1763-1824), Warwick Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

EBY, John (1758-1812), Leacock Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

EBY, John, Manheim Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

EBY, Peter (1742-1819), Warwick Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

EBY, Peter (1755-1835), Leacock Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

EBY, Peter, Leacock Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.
